

Informa Pharma Intelligence AWARDS JAPAN

THURSDAY MAY 12, 2022
PALACE HOTEL, TOKYO

BEST CONTRACT RESEARCH ORGANIZATION

This Award is to recognize CROs that provide full or specialist services to their clients and which are based either in Japan or the Asia region (including Australia) but which offer services in Japan.

Judging will consider the quality of services and relationships built with clients. It will pay particular attention to the innovative patient recruitment strategies the CRO has brought to the table.

To qualify, candidates must draw on their achievements in the 2021 calendar year.

Please complete the contact and entry sections and email to Natalia Kay
Senior Events Manager
E: Natalia.Kay@informa.com

To enter this category, please answer the following:

- What particular capabilities and strengths does the CRO offer?
- How has the company delivered results that exceed sponsor expectations?
- What innovations in patient recruitment strategy has the CRO brought to its partner?
- How has it improved its performance, for example, in its quality of data, timelines and transparency?
- What steps is the company taking towards streamlining data collection and reporting?

Details of person submitting the entry:

Entering Company

Twitter handle of the entering company

Name of the person submitting this entry form

Website of the entering company

Organization of the person submitting this entry form (if different from 'Entering Company')

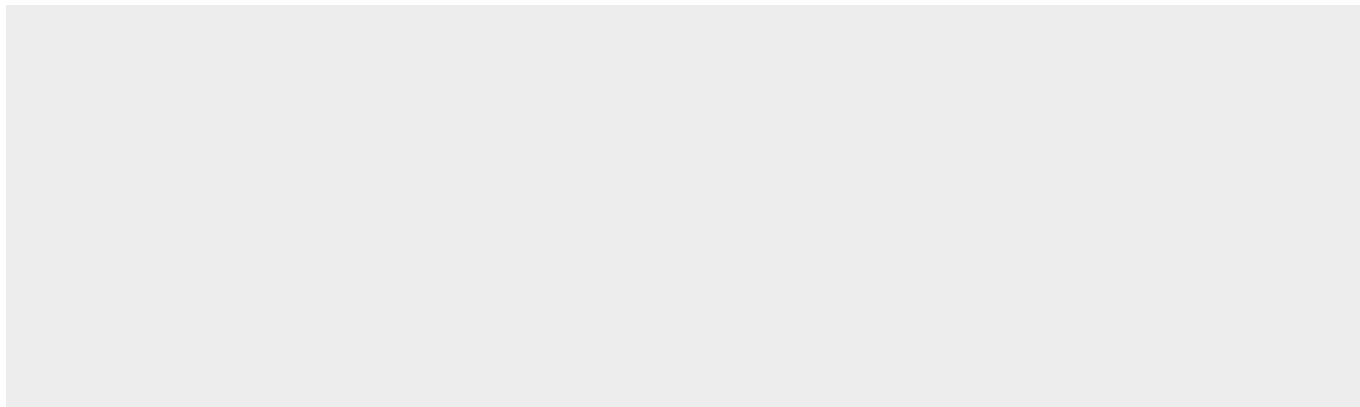

References

Include any links to online references that may support your entry

Email address

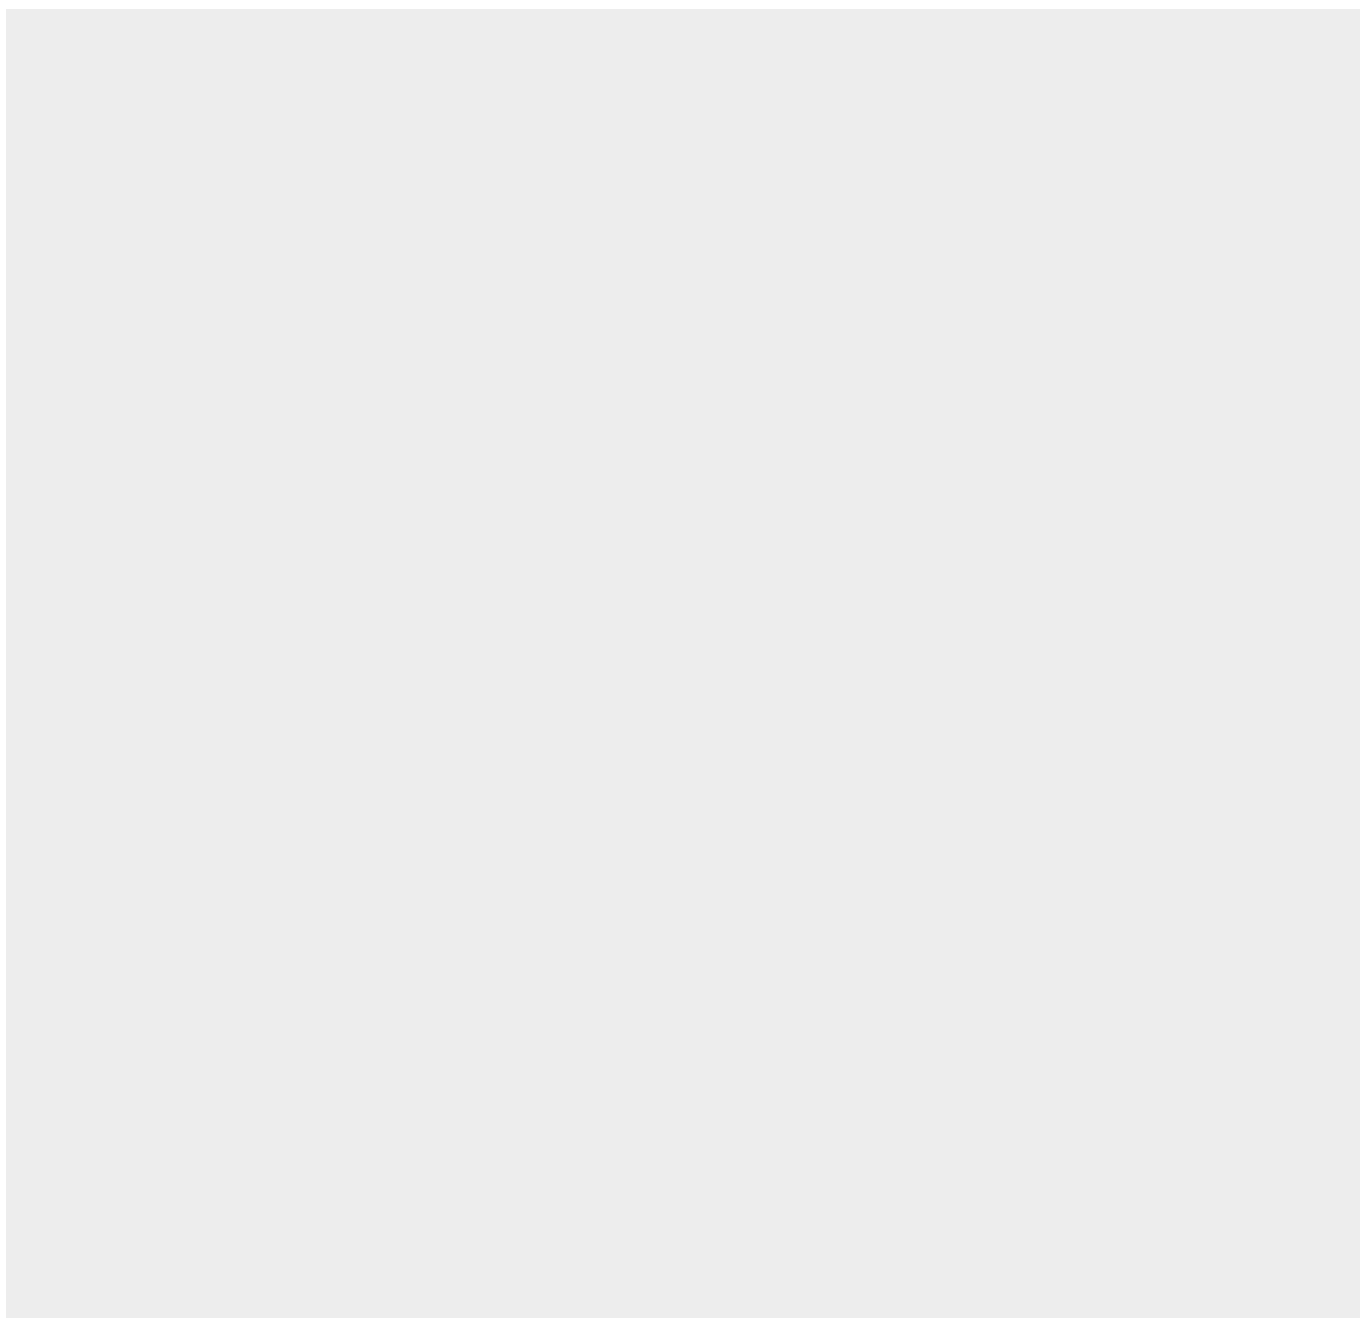

Entry summary: (approx. 250 words)

Please enter a summary of your entry, this may be used in Awards publicity material so please do not include any confidential information.

A large, empty rectangular box with a light grey background, intended for the user to enter a summary of their entry. It occupies the upper half of the page.

Entry: (approx. 1500 words)

Please use this box to submit your entry, referring to the questions in the category criteria.

A large, empty rectangular box with a light grey background, intended for the user to submit their full entry. It occupies the lower half of the page.